Then, message that is conveyed to the readers in this surah can be categorized mostly into religious message. The grand message of this surah is that Allah will give punishment to people who challenge the prophet Muhammad SAW and people who do not trust of Al-Qur'an because everyone must be responsible to what they are doing in this world.

4.2 Suggestion

Based on the findings of this study, the researcher suggests the further researcher who wants to conduct similar theme of study with more complete data and discussion because this research is still rare and away from the complete and perfect. So, the researcher recommends to the next researcher no to limit the discussion just as the previous researcher did before, but explore the analysis about semantic deeply.
